BOOKS

(Approximate cost)

Undergraduate	$200 - $300.00	per semester
Graduate	$250 - $300.00	per semester

The cost of books is dependent on the course of study. For example, music textbooks or Greek/Hebrew textbooks are generally more expensive than others.

REFUNDS

- A. Fees are never refundable.
- B. Room and board are prorated on a daily basis.
- C. Tuition refunds are computed as follows if the student drops a class, withdraws, or is expelled:
 - Registration week 90%
 - First/Second week 80%
 - Third/Fourth week 60%
 - Fifth/Sixth week 40%

Beyond the 6th week, no refund is given since the college has already made financial commitments for the semester based upon the student enrollment.

WORK AID

A limited number of positions are available for on-campus employment. These positions are established only to perform the necessary operations of the college. Employment positions are not guaranteed, and payment will be made by crediting the individual's tuition account.

VA BENEFITS

We accept the following benefits for eligible programs that are approved through our State Approving Agency. Please contact our School Certifying Official for details at admissions@ambassadors.edu.

FINANCIAL GUIDELINES

MISCELLANEOUS

Spouses of students carrying a minimum of nine hours may:

- Audit* classes tuition free, paying only for books and fees,
or
- Take classes for credit, paying one-half of the tuition in addition to the books and fees. The pre-payment incentive does not apply.

*Note: Classes requiring individual participation, such as computer classes, music classes, speech, and homiletics, may not be audited.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Several scholarships (based on character and need) are awarded to upperclassmen each year at Commencement.

The Barnabas Scholarship may be available to students who:

- Have parents in full-time Christian service,
or
- Are the third of three dependent children currently enrolled at ABC.

The Alumni Scholarship may be available to full-time students who:

- Have one or both parents who graduated from Ambassador Baptist College.

*Please see complete application for additional details. Applications are located in the Business Office.
